DR Human Resources' Managing Director Named Woman of Excellence by Chamber of Commerce!

Albany, NY – DR Human Resources, L.L.C., is proud to announce that Shareholder and Managing Director, Rose Miller, has been named a Woman of Excellence by the Albany-Colonie Chamber of Commerce's Women's Business Council.

Miller won in the category of Excellence in Management among companies with 10 or fewer employees. Miller, who joined the staff of The DR Group in 2005, will be honored at the annual Women of Excellence luncheon on Thursday, June 28th.

"We're very pleased that Rose has been selected for this honor," said Gordon Robbie, CPA, Chairman of The DR Group. "This award speaks to the effectiveness of her leadership, as well as to her vision in managing DR Human Resources."

Miller previously served as Vice President and Director of Human Resources for First Albany Capital, and also served as Corporate Controller for an internet software company. She received her Senior Professional of Human Resources (SPHR) certification from the Human Resources Certification Institute, and is a member of the Society of Human Resources (SHRM), the Capital Region HR Association, the National Association of Female Executives, the Women's Business Council of the Albany-Colonie Chamber of Commerce, and the Rensselaer County Chamber of Commerce. She was recently elected to the board of directors for Parsons Child and Family Center, and also serves as treasurer for both the Sand Lake Center for the Arts and Parents for Exceptional Progress.
